

Council on Aging in Union County
Privacy Policy

Council on Aging in Union County, Inc. is committed to honoring the privacy and the wishes of our supporters at all times. We collect and maintain only personal information that is specifically and knowledgeably provided to us by individuals. Council on Aging will never rent, exchange or sell information on our contributors. We will only share personally identifiable information with a third party, if we are required by law or if the person submitting the information asks that it be shared.

There are opportunities within the website to provide Council on Aging with contact information, such as when you email us for information. If you provide us with this information, we may contact you for additional information or send you information, such as our newsletter.

In addition, like almost all websites, we do collect broad, general statistical information about how visitors use our site, such as how often each page is visited, for the purpose of creating a better site.

If you have any questions about our privacy policies, please contact us.
